When the writ petition came up for admission, this Court granted conditional stay order directing payment of Rs.1,00,000/- as condition for stay. However, petitioner neither paid the amount nor approached the Kerala Financial Corporation for settlement is the information furnished by learned standing counsel for KFC. Since liability is admitted, it is for the petitioner to approach the Corporation for settlement of liability under OTS scheme or under any other beneficial scheme available for settlement, within a reasonable time, failing which respondents are free to proceed with all steps for recovery.

This writ petition is disposed of as above.
